Publication Guidelines

Congratulations on your listing in Best Lawyers®. The guidelines below provide you with the tools you need to publicly showcase your honors.

How to Cite a Listing

GENERAL RULES:

- You are permitted to mention in advertisements that you are recognized by Best Lawyers® or in The Best Lawyers in America®, but not that you are a “best lawyer” or to suggest that a listing in Best Lawyers guarantees a desired result.
- Do not include any language the viewer may misconstrue as the listed lawyer being more skilled than lawyers who are not listed in the publication.
- Best Lawyers is always plural.
- The Best Lawyers methodology is annual, national/regional, and practice area based. All compliant announcements contain the year, country, and awarded practice area. The only exception to this rule is a firm-wide announcement, which should contain the year, country, and total number of lawyers included in the associated edition.
- When referring to Best Lawyers as an organization, use Best Lawyers®.
- The registered trademark and copyright symbol should be included with the first mention of Best Lawyers or The Best Lawyers in America. All following mentions of The Best Lawyers in America in the same document must be italicized, but do not need to include the copyright symbol.
- Use of the registered trademark and copyright symbol are only required for firms in the United States.
- When publicizing Best Lawyers awards online, a hyperlink to your Best Lawyers profile or www.bestlawyers.com is required.

ADVERTISING RULES:

- When publicizing Best Lawyers awards using a group photo from the firm, the specific lawyers listed in Best Lawyers must be identified by name in a caption.
- Advertisers should check their state or jurisdictional bar associations' rules on specialty certification before including specialties and subspecialties in any advertisement.

ADDITIONAL APPROVED MATERIAL

- Since it was first published in 1983, Best Lawyers® has become universally regarded as the definitive guide to legal excellence. Best Lawyers lists are compiled based on an exhaustive peer-review evaluation. Almost 94,000 industry leading lawyers are eligible to vote (from around the world), and we have received over 11 million evaluations on the legal abilities of other lawyers based on their specific practice areas around the world. For the 2020 Edition of The Best Lawyers in America®, 8.3 million votes were analyzed, which resulted in more than 62,000 leading lawyers being included in the new edition. Lawyers are not required or allowed to pay a fee to be listed; therefore inclusion in Best Lawyers is considered a singular honor. Corporate Counsel magazine has called Best Lawyers “the most respected referral list of attorneys in practice.”
